DO YOU REMEMBER?

When we entered the stately portals of Monroe for the first time . . . . back in 1925 . . . . withstanding the taunts of "7 B babies" . . . . how we used to march in single file lines in the third floor corridors . . . . and the 7 B assembly . . . . and our first regular assembly . . . . seated in the balcony watching with awe as the Junior Corps marched in . . . . our first homeroom presidents . . . . Charles Hellebush, Thomas Crawford, Kurt Werner, and Robert Buck . . . . the camping party with Mr. Bauer and Mr. Ladd at Manitou . . . . those gaudy pieces of ribbon that we proudly wore as class colors . . . . the clubs every Tuesday . . . . compulsory class meeting every Thursday . . . . the lunchroom on the third floor . . . . and the long lunch period with dancing in the girls' gym.

Then came a lapse of two years and we found ourselves in the Junior Corps . . . . and the big moment when WE marched into assembly . . . . Charles Hellebush and Kathleen McCahan were the presidents; James Hutchinson and Elinore Horton, vice-presidents; Kurt Werner and Eleanor Eesley, secretaries; and William Lee and Marjorie Deninger, social chairmen . . . . our first social event . . . . the Junior Corps dance (the girls outnumbered the boys four to one) . . . . the moving-up program in Junior assembly . . . . sitting on those bleachers afraid to move . . . . proudly getting our awards . . . . that night that comes once in a lifetime . . . . Junior High School graduation . . . . and the graduation play . . . . with Charles Hellebush as Abe Lincoln, Eleanor Eesley as his mother, and Robert Stackel as his father . . . . and Kathleen McCahan making the welcoming address . . . . the presentation of the class gift by Kurt Werner . . . . and then the diplomas . . . . the transfer of the flag by Charles Hellebush and Mary Eidam, our standard bearers to Howard Hennington and Claire Meyer of the June class.

Our first years as members of the Senior department . . . . we celebrated this by electing Robert Stackel, president; Lorraine Bradshaw, vice-president; Ernest McWilliams, secretary; and Katherine Kinsky, social chairmen of the 10 B class . . . . "The Patsy" given by the Junior class back in 1928 . . . . and "The Taming of The Shrew" . . . . where we had a chance to laugh at the faculty . . . . and our first Forum and Council . . . . our first 10 A homeroom presidents . . . . Mary Eidam, Edna Baschnagel, Kurt Werner, and Elizabeth Webster . . . . "The Goose Hangs High" . . . . and that "epidemic" when the corridors were full of bums . . . . those dizzy issues of MONROE LIFE . . . . when we elected Kurt Werner, Charles Hellebush, Ernest McWilliams, and James Hutchinson to lead us through the eleventh year . . . . then the play that was considered one of the best ever given at Monroe . . . . our Junior play . . . . that superb mystery . . . . "Cat o' Nine Tails"!!!!! . . . . which had us shivering for weeks after . . . . and which was given by our class starring such Thespians as Pat Deninger, Lee Silver, Chuck Hellebush, Eddie Baschnagel, and Ay Jay Saunders.

Finally our Senior year . . . . Kurt Werner, Robert Stackel, Ernest McWilliams, Irving Guttenberg, and Marjorie Deninger acting as our officers . . . . witnessing those basketball games with East High (boy, weren't they close) . . . . and that discussion over caps and gowns . . . . (we did not wear them) . . . . and the Senior play . . . . "The Show Off" . . . . with Ronald Doll laughing all over the place . . . . the Mothers' Tea . . . . with dancing . . . . and then that gala Senior Day . . . . a day of real fun . . . . we even played miniature golf . . . . with the boys fishing the girls' balls from the water hazards . . . . our "Alice in Wonderland" banquet . . . . and then Graduation . . . . with Us in the limelight.

Wasn't it a grand and glorious feeling?

CLASS OF JUNE, 1931—PRISON RECORD

September, 1928

The Class of June, 1931, was committed to the Monroe Institute of Penal Servitude to serve a three year sentence at hard labor for alleged vagrancy. Upon arriving, we were assigned to cell block 10 B. Shortly after taking up residence in our new quarters, we were all promoted to the rank of trusty because of good behavior. At elections which ensued, the following eggs were named to organize our group for the purpose of securing better treatment from the wardens: Willie "Weasel" Van Allen, Leader; "Safe-cracker" Sergeant, Assistant to keep Leader from escaping; "Light-fingered Lulu" Johnston, Caller of the roll; and "Rough-house" Rippey, Social Chairman in charge of riots. About this time the Prison Welfare League held its general elections, "Jar face" John Nell being chosen Big Shot, Mac "Mauler" Russell, Vice Big Shot, "Ward heeler" Whipple, Secretary in charge of files and saws, and "Eel" Elliott and "Alky" Anderson, prayer and song leaders. The "Ward heeler" was also elected Editor-in-Chief of the MONROE LIFER, the prison paper, while at an election held by section 1929, "Rabbit" Ramsay and "Wet Smack" Sprague were named Editors-in-Chief of the annual report to the warden, the MONROLOG. In December the first issue of the KALIEDOSCOPE, to be published spasmodically, was presented to the inmates with marked success. A little later the Welfare League basketball team put the Charlotte gang on the spot for its tenth consecutive victory. Its next two raids were not so successful, however, as it suffered minor losses at the guns of first the Marshalls, then the East Siders.

January, 1929

The Dutch element of the institution organized into a society called "The Popgunners." The Frogs, not to be outdone named themselves "The Bad Beer Barons" and claimed as their territory cell 125 and the adjoining speakeasy. The week of January 18-25 marked a complete investigation by the authorities which resulted in the requartering of our class in the 10 A cell block and in the release of the 12 A section. In March "The Bad Beer Barons" presented a play, "Gun Powder in the Eyes," in the chapel. "Big time Bob" Marshall was named Editor-in-Chief of the MONROE LIFER. The Prison Welfare League elections were marred by battles with pump guns and water pistols, but when the smoke of battle had cleared away, the following competent officials had been named to guide its destinies: "Brewer" Baker, Big Shot; "Rosie" Lockwood, Vice Big Shot; and "Pineapple" Posner, secretary. May brought an exhibition of the workshop products. In June another investigation was held which advanced most of our class to the 11 B division and turned loose the entire class of June, 1929. As the wardens were badly in need of a rest, the majority of the prisoners were given a two months parole.

September, 1929

Upon returning to the Alexander Street workshops, our first act was the election of cell block officials. They were as follows: Leader, "The Weasel"; Assistant, "Light-fingered Lulu"; Caller of the roll, "Howitzer Howie" Hennington; Social Chairman, "Bandit" Benedict. The Prison Welfare League held its general elections, "Mauler" Russell snaking the post of Big Shot with "Looter" Louis Teall as Vice Big Shot, "Absorbine" Arnot, Jr., as Secretary. The Prayer and Song positions were grabbed by "Jumping Johnny" Keeler and "Brilliantine Bob" Burnham. The section awaiting release 1930 picked "Frowzy Fred" Miller and "Sunny" Silverman to make out the report to the superintendent. "Thug" Thayer was chosen Editor-in-Chief of the MONROE LIFER.

CLASS OF JUNE, 1931—PRISON RECORD

January, 1930

Because we so ably followed out the precepts laid down in THE IDLES OF THE KING, it being right along our line, we were moved to the 11 A branch of the institution where we enjoyed the advantages of closer and more enlightening contact with the dear wardens. "Bank-buster" Branch was entrusted with the responsibility of editing the MONROE LIFER. Our Junior Class play, "The Guy with the Thousand Grand" was presented in the chapel. The show was free from bombings and was a marked success. Due to the escape of the existing Welfare League officers, the following mugs were elected to take their places: "Eel" Elliott, Big Shot; "Shoveller Shirley" Olsan, Vice Big Shot; and "Gunman" Goldman, Secretary. The KALIEDOSCOPE had another spasm, its appearance being a surprise to everyone, including the staff. Another investigation followed by another parole resulted in our being advanced to the 12 B cell block. Owing to the reputations built up by eight members of our group and to their success in working the wardens, they were elected to membership in The Natural Dishonor Society.

September, 1930

With our paroles revoked under the Compulsary Education Law, the Class of 1931 returned to the institution for further correction. To get in practice for the coming Welfare League elections, we held another divisional election, naming "The Weasel" as Leader, Fred "Flash" Meyer as Assistant, "Safe-cracker" Sergeant as Caller of the Roll, and "Merry-maker" Whipple as Riot Superintendent. At the Welfare League elections which followed, "The Weasel" was chosen Big Shot with "Whitewash" Waugh holding down the Vice Big Shot post, "Happy" Hal Young as Secretary, and "Charming" Chapman and Ted "Tootles" Fitch as Choir and Dancing Masters. The machines functioned perfectly, and no very serious fatalities were reported. The group expecting release in January appointed "Energy" Edna Baschnagel Editor-in-Chief of the MONROLOG, while "Honest" John Beckley was similarly stung by our class. The staff of the MONROE LIFER picked "Lamb" Luescher as its director. The Natural Dishonor Society elected "Honest" John to the position of Foremost Forger with "Eraser" Eesley as Check Raiser and "Hold up" Horton as Engraver.

January, 1931

The new year started off with another Welfare election, "Flash" Meyer being named Big Shot; "Diamond" Delibert, Vice Big Shot; and "Cagy" Claire Meyer, Secretary. The Natural Dishonor Society revolted against the old regime, naming "Howitzer Howie," "Terror" Townshend, and "Shot Gun" Stewart as Foremost Forger, Check Raiser, and Engraver respectively. Plans for a riot to be held on June 12th were laid by a committee managed by "Machine Gun" MacNaughton, and at the same time plans for the escape of our entire class were being formulated by a committee of gate-crashers headed by "Beautiful" Bob Paterson. The Red Racketeers succeeded for the first time in history in thoroughly subduing the East Side gang; thus gaining all the territory in Rochester except that held by Ben Franklino's mob. About the first of June the report to the wardens was published. On the 12th the riot came off, being one of the best ever held, and on the 23rd the longed for jail break was staged without a hitch. No search was made for the fugitives as the wardens decided them to be "incorrigibly lazy but altogether harmless."

Each year the Senior Class publishes a four year record of its achievements and a record of the activities of the entire school during the year of publication.

The editors this year have undertaken this work in the hope that their efforts may bring into being a book that will be a credit to our class and to our school. We hope that it may live as a permanent reminder of the numerous events and many friendships of four crowded but happy school years.

The "Chestnuts," Monroe's Chess Club which was organized in 1930 by Harold Knight, has been holding weekly meetings throughout the fall and spring terms.

A tournament has been conducted in which each club member eventually played all the others, the winner being the one having the highest percentage of victories. This, with other activities, has helped to make the year an interesting one for the club.

The Girls' Service Association is an organization made up of girls from the Senior High Department of Monroe. Its purposes are to serve the school and the community, to make girls more active in student activities, and to promote friendship and cooperation among the girls. Combined business and social meetings are held once a month.

Welfare work was done at Thanksgiving and Christmas time. Members have also done office work during study halls throughout the year.

In September a tea was held, welcoming new girls into the school. In October a Hallowe'en Frolic was given and in December the new officers for the spring term were elected. At both the February and the March meetings a speaker addressed the Association. At the April meeting the organization sponsored a fashion show. On May first the annual Girls' Service Association banquet took place and in June the officers for the fall term of 1931 were elected.

Members to this club are chosen on the basis of their scholarship in German. The purpose of "Die Papageien" is to increase the interest in the German language and to promote the use of German for conversational purposes.

The Dramatic Society of Monroe High School, organized in 1929, holds its meetings every two weeks. Members to this club are chosen for their dramatic ability after they have first read some piece of literature before the club members. At the meetings playwrights are studied and plays are presented and discussed. A one act play, Nevertheless, by Stuart Walker, was presented by the club over the radio last fall during an inter-high school hour.

SENIOR PLAY

"The Show Off" was presented by the Senior Class of Monroe High School on the evening of November 21. It was, as anyone who saw it could affirm, a rollicking comedy, characterized by good acting.

Although the 1930 soccer team only succeeded in defeating Irondequoit, they deserve credit for making their opponents step to the score of 3 to 1. However, with continued fine sportsmanship of the team and our new coach, Carl Beghold, Monroe has a promising future leading to the intershcolastic title next year.

Despite the additional competition of Benjamin Franklin, the 1930 Cross Country team, coached by Lee Ackley, succeeded in pattering through with a fourth place after a hard fought race in the interscholastic meet of November 22. However, with repeated efforts on the part of the squad, there are high hopes for perfection in the interscholastic meet of next year.

The Monroe swimming team under the expert tutelage of Coach Claude L. Wallace, closed a highly successful season with a victory over the U. of R. Freshmen. WRESTLING

The Monroe wrestling team completed its most successful season in several years by competing in the city-wide wrestling tourney in which two Monroe men won city championships. Milton Dibble, 105-pound class, and John DeFrancisco, 126-pound class each won the title in his respective division. The most outstanding victory for the team was that over Franklin—when Parker scored a fall in the 160-pound class to take the meet. Monroe tied for third place with East and Franklin, each winning two meets.

When planning your Annual . . .

AS each new Staff undertakes the planning of a Year Book it is confronted with the same old problems which have perplexed the workers of previous years.

And yet, to each new Staff these planning and production problems are all new and ordinarily must be solved without the benefit of the experience of those who have solved the same problems in the past.

Much of this grief is avoided when the Staff works with The Du Bois Press. Out of our wealth of experience in building Year Books we have formulated certain well defined standards of procedure for the guidance of each new Staff.

To enjoy the full benefit of our Creative Service we recommend a preliminary conference between the members of the Staff and the Manager of our Year Book Department. This preliminary conference should be arranged at as early a date as possible and does not incur any obligation. . . . . Our "idea" or planning department has created many out-standing and prize-winning Year Books. . . . . May we be of service to you?

"Extravagance rots character; train youth away from it. On the other hand, the habit of saving money, while it stiffens the will, also brightens the energies. If you would be sure you are right, save."

Plenty of Hot Water

for health and comfort

Ask any trainer how far he could go training his track or football teams—without plenty of running hot water. The cold shower is "great" but its full benefits depend upon the hot shower which precedes it.

Ask mother how long she could manage to run the home—without hot water. One-third of all the water used at home is hot water. We need not remind you of its many uses.

Perhaps your home needs a modern automatic storage water system. Why not come in and let us tell you about them, and show you how this up-to-date hot water service can be yours for a cost that is well within your means.
